Wimbledon Racquets & Fitness Club

Child Protection Policy Statement

The child protection policy demonstrates the importance that WR&FC places on the protection of children who participate in the club programmes. The club is committed to ensuring that their young members are able to enjoy a wide range of activities in a safe environment.

- The Wimbledon Racquets & Fitness Club aims to create an enjoyable environment for all juniors who wish to take part in badminton, squash and other social activities.
- The club emphasises that young people have the right to be safe, secure and free from threat.
- The club acknowledges that young people have the right to be treated with respect and for their concerns to be listened to and acted upon.
- The club will ensure that junior members have specific programmes designated for them, with adequate supervision.
- The club has procedures in place to help any young person who requests help and support on a confidential basis, in issues relating to child protection.
- The club will ensure that the head coach holds a current Governing body recognised coaching qualification and that other coaches and coaching assistants are aware of it.
- All coaches will apply the club's Code of Conduct for those working with children in Badminton & Squash.
- The club will ensure that any members and volunteers working with young people are aware of, and apply, the clubs Code of Conduct for those working with children in Badminton & Squash.
